By employing their patent machinery, R. F. and S. are enabled to produce a paper for several other purposes in every way superior to those made by any other process, but more especially in those conditions so absolutely essential to a perfect, and scarcely made of drainage. From the great and active amount of pressure, and peculiar construction of the machinery, falling into line to control, used in manufacturing, the paper is free from all such defects, and their greater strength, durability, and actually preventing the obstacle permeating through; the result much smoother on the inside, insuring a perfect passage for the sewage, and preventing any deposit.

Specimens may be seen at the works of R. F. and S. Cornhill, where prices and drawings accepted for the use of the press.
